Creative Writing

Whether your child is a reluctant writer or a novelist in the making, this workshop aims to inspire a love of language and writing. Evidence suggests we learn more effectively through play. So, each week, your child will develop their literacy skills as they play—art, drama and games will inspire their creativity and support their learning. They will have the opportunity to explore new forms—poetry, song writing, play writing, advertisements, picture books, fiction and non-fiction. Each week, your child will complete a piece of written work and be rewarded for participation and story achievements.
